The Euros

Dear England football team, Thank you for inspiring me to never give up and I am very sorry that people are sending mean messages to you on social media I think you did a brilliant job in the Euros against Italy and I am very sorry that one of the Italian players pulled one of your player down from the pitch.
And a special mention to Marcus Rashford, Jadon桑乔 and Bukayo Saka. Good luck in the world cup From Tom, Age 8

Dear Marcus Rashford
Don't let those nasty comments get to your head.
You actually did very well and you inspired me to never give up and always keep trying. I am really proud of you making it to the finals with your team.
Good luck in the world cup next year.

Dear Bukayo sokanya,

Even now you are only 19 you are still strong. You tried your best. I ignore the comments you have inspired me to never stop trying. My dad is proud of you. I feel angry and sad to hear that people are being racist because you didn't manage to score. I will always support you and your team. Good luck in the world cup.

Dear Marcus Rashford,

I know that you missed a goal but you are still a very amazing footballer. And we know that you tried your best. And you inspired me to never give up. I am very mad that people hating you and messing up your super man. Good luck in the World Cup. And good luck in life.

I am sorry you lost but never give up. Focus on the people who look up to you. You inspired me so never give up. So all happy. You helped me. Keep trying and you will keep achieving. So all the time you will win and it is not to win its to have fun.
